Masinda Productions presents:
"Chimerical Continuum" #1

It began simply, with
A Night Out on
THE TOWN
We gazed up at the stars, as a streak of light ran through the glistening sky.

We followed the light, gliding between the stars. Expecting it would eventually fade into darkness.

It burned bright, like a Fire Across the Cosmos.

Though, suddenly, as if colliding with a sun, the light began to radiate...
Magnified...
Igniting the entire sky with reflective crystals

Shining...
Cracking the very reality around us.

Until all we saw, were
MIRRORS and LIGHTNING
