I remember painting in the basement
on the floor, in a blanket
Obscured Oceanic view

I remember pausing for the first time.
on edge at the end, wet cement by the bathroom.
I remember candles up north

I remember dividing mattresses,

Asking to tie my suit submerged

In a new light.
LET'S PLAY MUSIC!

Contact at 215

- Guitar played in high school
- Occasionally songs
- Mediocre singer

I remember it all.

And my brain transm. into a humming
The cold

Get into this!

I'm of...
(it was cold before you)
